

Fothergilla gardenii

Family: Hamamelidaceae

Common Name: Dwarf Fothergilla

- Height: 1.5 – 3'
- Spread: 2 – 4'
- Light requirements: full sun to part shade
- Soil: moist, acidic, organically rich, well-drained soils
- Flower: showy, fragrant
- Bloom Time: April to May
- Bloom Description: White
- Growth: Slow growing, deciduous dwarf ornamental shrub
- Native Origin: Southeastern US

Alternative to invasive Japanese Barberry, Berberis thunbergii

Compact specimen or accent that may be grown in groups or massed. Shrub borders, foundations, cottage gardens, open woodland areas or native plant areas.

<http://www.missouribotanicalgarden.org/PlantFinder/PlantFinderDetails.aspx?kempercode=a430>