

Phlox paniculata

Family: Polemoniaceae

Common Name: Garden Phlox

- Height: 2-4'
- Spread: 2-3'
- Light requirements: Full sun to part shade
- Soil: rich, moist, organic
- Flower: Showy, fragrant, white
- Bloom Time: July to September
- Growth: herbaceous perennial
- Native Origin: North America
- Interesting Fact: Garden phlox is attractive to hummingbirds and is also deer tolerate!

<http://www.missouribotanicalgarden.org/PlantFinder/PlantFinderDetails.aspx?kempercode=l610>

<http://www.gardenworldimages.com/Details.aspx?ID=61572&TypeID=1>